

EDGE Datacenter

DESCRIPTION

Complementing the Datacenter international network, Gtd has infrastructure to develop Edge Datacenter which enables closer connectivity to specific data centers.

Edge Datacenters are decentralized IT systems that carry the computing power directly to the point of data generation.

They are close to the data sources, and therefore allow a faster first data processing. In addition, they are also connected to data centers in the cloud.